3 this is good, but I think local groups need to get together also

▼ this seems like a distraction

we need to be active in our communities and help there - Trump will handle washington, we the people need to be in our communities helping each other out

Do it. Start a group and get out to the Capitol every Saturday.

2 I'm making some grassroots efforts but trying to keep it offline and trying to be more cheerful around people

I'm socially awkward but I'm trying my best out there
